

DR. MAGGIE HAERTSCH

Aged Services, Interim & Compliance Remediation Specialist

☎ (02) 8610 1950
✉ maggiehaertsch@anchorexcellence.com
🌐 anchorexcellence.com
in linkedin.com/in/maggiehaertsch/

QUALIFICATIONS

2017

Accredited to use and teach the Adult Social Care Outcomes Toolkit (ASCOT)

2015 - Current

Member of Australian Institute of Company Directors

2000

PhD in Medical Science, Discipline of Behavioural Science in Relation to Medicine (Newcastle)

2000

Certificate IV in Workplace Training (Category 2)

1991

Post-Graduate Diploma of Health Science

1986 - 2012

Registered Midwife

Dr Maggie Haertsch is a strategic thinker and solutions focused professional, with the unique ability to translate and mobilise research - bringing new thinking and innovation into aged care. She is able to link business problems, solutions and peer networks; has excellent strategic acumen, and the ability to work in a dynamic and demanding environment.

Acting as Consultant to the World Health Organisation's Dementia team in Switzerland, Dr. Maggie Haertsch brings a wealth of international experience and deep understanding. She's a strong collaborator and has helped develop long-term partnerships across different cultures, political systems and sectors.

She holds several professional memberships and directorships roles.

EXPERIENCE

2019

Aged Services, Interim & Compliance Remediation Specialist - Anchor Excellence

Implementation of LivingWell, a multi-staged process of re-designing support and services in residential aged care, applying a human-rights-based approach to people living with dementia. Part of consultants responsible for turn-around work

2018 - 2019

Consultant - World Health Organisation

Advising on the Global Dementia Action Plans. Providing technical assistance. Liaising with 193 member states to make dementia a public health priority.

EXPERIENCE CONTINUED

- 2011 - 2017 ■ CEO and Executive Director - Arts Health Institute
Led the development of organisational strategy, budgets and human capital plan. Designed and successfully implemented a sustainable business model. Designed and delivered several significant publications and programs, which positively impacted aged care, Parkinson's Disease sufferers and children with hemiplegia. Completed numerous prestigious speaking engagements.
- 2011 - 2012 ■ Consultant - Nepal Children's Project
Managing a troupe of four Australian and New Zealand performing artists to perform at 28 schools culminating in a training program for children in celebration of the Sir Edmund Hilary Foundation.
- 2008 - 2010 ■ Project Lead - Western Australia Centre for Rural Health & Western Australia Primary Health Alliance
Led consultancy on diabetes prevention and better care pathways for Indigenous Australian's in Pilbara region of Western Australia.
- 2004 - 2008 ■ Project Lead - Voicemap
Implementation of Voicemap systems across hospitals, aged care homes and remote locations in United Kingdom and Australia.
- 1994 - 2004 ■ Other Roles - Various
Full list of accomplishments, employments and accolades are available on LinkedIn

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION & MEMBERSHIPS

AWARDS

Enterprise Woman of the Year (2004)

AWARDS

Pricewaterhouse Coopers X-Factor award for best innovation contribution to Australian industry (2005)

AWARDS

Finalist, United Nations Media Peace Awards – Promotion of Positive Images of Ageing (2015)

AWARDS

Finalist, Australian Financial Review and Westpac 100 Women of Influence (2015)

AWARDS

Winner - partnering with the Agency for Clinical Innovation, Minister for Health, NSW Australia - Arts in Health

AWARDS

Woman of the Year for Newcastle NSW (2016)

Anchor Excellence

LEADERS ENABLING LEADERS

Choosing the right path is easier if you've walked it before.

With a commitment to excellence in aged care delivery, business transformation, leadership, mentoring and training – Anchor Excellence will ensure your organisation achieves its objectives.